

Top 5 Interview Questions for Blood Fury by Edward Eriksson

1. What first drew you to the Battle of Gettysburg, and why did you feel compelled to retell it in this immersive, narrative form?
2. Your writing places readers inside the chaos of battle—how did your background in performance and storytelling influence the way you approached this history?
3. Gettysburg has been written about extensively. What do you believe Blood Fury reveals or captures that is often missing from traditional accounts?
4. How did you balance historical accuracy with emotional engagement when portraying both command decisions and the experiences of individual soldiers?
5. What do you hope modern readers—especially those encountering Gettysburg for the first time—take away from this story about war, leadership, and national consequence?