About the Book (Excerpts & Info)

Yedi, one of seven kittens born to Mama Cat, is black as midnight with a star on her chest. Mama Cat rules the Grand Bazaar, with merchants selling wares from around the world. For the most part, the kittens take naps. Explore the bazaar stalls. Followed by more naps. When Mama Cat meows, all her kittens come running—all except Yedi, who pays her no mind. Mama Cat hopes each of her kittens will find the perfect stall to call home, and sure enough, the kittens do. All but Yedi. Yedi craves adventure. Night after night, she wanders further and further afield, until one night, when she gets lost and ends up on a caravan traveling east. As she looks back and sees the city, and the Grand Bazaar, slipping out of sight, Yedi realizes she has done it! She is on an adventure—off to see the world from a lofty perch. Yet, at the same time, Yedi wonders when, or if, she will see Mama Cat again.

Deftly constructed at 61 pages, Silky's Road is being aggressively promoted to appropriate markets with a focus on the juvenile fiction / historical / middle east category. With U.S. wholesale distribution through Ingram and Baker & Taylor, and pervasive online availability through Amazon, Barnes & Noble and elsewhere, Silky's Road meets consumer demand through both retail and library markets with a suggested retail price of $28.95 and $42.95, respectively.

Additionally, Silky's Road can be ordered by retailers or wholesalers for the maximum trade discount price set by the author in quantities of ten or more from the Outskirts Press Direct bookstore at www.outskirtspress.com/bookstore
